

Lewistown Carnegie Public Library

Book Club Selections 2019

January – At Water's Edge by Sara Gruen (Historical Fiction)

A gripping and poignant love story about a privileged young woman's awakening as she experiences the devastation of World War II in a tiny Scottish village.

February- Wonder by RJ Palacio (Children's Fiction)

A warm uplifting story featuring realistic family interactions, Wonder will have readers laughing one minute and wiping away tears the next.

March–The Reader's of Broken Wheel Recommend by Katarina Bivald (General Fiction)

A heartwarming reminder of why we are booklovers. This sweet, smart story is about how books find us, change us, and connect us.

April – The Wahls Protocol by Dr. Terry Wahls (Health, Nonfiction)

Dr. Wahls provides elegant first hand validation that diet truly represents the most powerful medicine.

May- Truly Madly Guilty by Liane Moriarty (Mystery, Thriller)

A gripping mystery that takes on the foundation of our lives and shows how guilt can expose the fault lines in the strongest relationships.

June – Uncommon Types by Tom Hanks (Short Stories)

An intelligent, heart- warming collection of short stories by two-time Oscar winner Tom Hanks.

July – Erasing America: Losing Our Future by Destroying Our Past by James Robbins (Politics, Social Service)

A fresh look at how a toxic movement wants to demean, demolish, and relentlessly attack America's past in order to control America's present.

August – Life After Life by Kate Atkinson (Fiction)

A wildly inventive dark comedy that plays with time and history.

September – Across Five Aprils by Irene Hunt (Teen Historical Fiction -Newbery Award Honor 1965)

An unforgettable coming-of-age story set during the Civil War.

October – All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr (Historical Fiction)

A beautiful, stunningly ambitious read that tells the story of a blind French girl and a German boy whose paths collide in occupied France as they both try to survive the devastation of WWII.

November – A Spool of Blue Thread by Anne Tyler (Family Fiction)

The warm, charming, and emotionally radiant story of the Whitshank family.

December – The Reluctant Fortune Teller by Keziah Frost (Literary Humor)

A witty heartfelt story about coming of age late in life, this book is a great reminder that we are never too old to learn new tricks.